Plaintiff,

-vs-

MONTGOMERY COUNTY BOARD
OF EDUCATION, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:05-cv-0495

ANSWER ON BEHALF OF DEFENDANTS
MONTGOMERY COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION,
VICKIE JERNIGAN, MARK LABRANCHE, TOMMIE MILLER,
MARY BRIERS, DAVE BORDEN, HENRY A. SPEARS,
BEVERLY ROSS, AND DR. CARLINDA PURCELL
To PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT

COME Now the Defendants, Montgomery County Board of Education, Vickie Jernigan, Mark LaBranche, Tommie Miller, Mary Briers, Dave Borden, Henry A. Spears, Beverly Ross, and Dr. Carlinda Purcell (hereinafter referred to collectively as "these Defendants"), by and through their counsel of record, and respond separately and severally, to the Plaintiff's Complaint as follows:

FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims are barred by the applicable statute of limitations.

SECOND DEFENSE

The Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a claim against these Defendants upon which relief can be granted.

THIRD DEFENSE

These Defendants are entitled to qualified immunity with regard to Plaintiff's 42 U.S.C. § 1983 claims and state law claims because any action taken by these Defendants was taken in good faith, pursuant to their discretionary authority and their conduct did not violate any clearly established constitutional rights about which a reasonable person would have known.

FOURTH DEFENSE

All Plaintiff's claims, as alleged in his Complaint, which occurred more than one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the filing of his charge of discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") are barred by the applicable statute of limitations and/or the Plaintiff's failure to comply with the procedures required by 42 U.S.C. § 2000(e).

FIFTH DEFENSE

All of the Plaintiff's claims in his Complaint which were not set forth in his EEOC charge are barred as outside the scope of the charge.

SIXTH DEFENSE

If Plaintiff proves that any decision regarding his employment was motivated in whole or in part by his race or other unlawful intent, the Defendants will show that the same action would have been taken regardless of said unlawful intent.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Defendants did not retaliate against plaintiff.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

There is no cause or connection between any alleged unlawful employment action asserted against the Board and any alleged protected conduct.

NINTH DEFENSE

The Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a claim against these Defendants upon which relief can be granted under Title VII.

TENTH DEFENSE

The Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a claim against these Defendants upon which relief can be granted under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Defendants did not discriminate against Plaintiff based upon his race.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

None of the decisions made by Defendants regarding Plaintiff's employment, including the decision not to retain Plaintiff was based on any protected conduct.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

The Defendants' interest in the orderly administration of the Montgomery County Public Schools outweighs any alleged interest or entitlement of Plaintiff.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiff does not have a right to be promoted or assigned to a coveted position by the Defendants.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

Defendant Purcell is not an employer under Title VII.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

Defendant Purcell is not a final decision maker with respect to any employment decisions affecting Plaintiff.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE

There is no cause or connection between any allegedly unlawful conduct and any mental anguish or emotional distress suffered by Plaintiff.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

Defendants are not subject to punitive damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

An excessive award of damages for emotional distress (whether so labeled or whether referred to by any similar phrase describing non-economic, compensatory damages) in this action would violate the due process and equal protection rights of the defendant pursuant to Amendment XIV of the Constitution of the United States. Alabama's laws regarding emotional distress damages are not reasonably related to any legitimate governmental purpose nor narrowly tailored to effectuate their purpose. Said laws do not provide Defendants with sufficient notice of the amount of such damages that might be awarded in a particular case. Instructions given to jurors regarding such damages provide no meaningful limitation on the amount of damages that may be awarded and no constraint on the jury's award. Appellate review pursuant to Alabama law is not sufficient to correct the lack of due process and equal protection inherent in the lack of meaningful constraint on and instructions to the jury at the trial.

TWENTIETH DEFENSE

Plaintiff's claims, if any, for the recovery of punitive damages are in contravention of Defendants' rights under each of the following constitutional provisions: (a) the Commerce Clause of Article I, Section 8 of the United States Constitution; (b) the Contracts Clause of Article I, Section 10 of the United States Constitution; (c) the Excessive Fines Clause of the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution; (d) the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution; (e) the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution; (f) the federal constitutional prohibition against vague and over broad laws; (g) the Excessive Fines Clause of Article I, Section 15 of the Alabama Constitution; (h) the Ex Post Facto Clause of Article I, Section 22 of the Alabama Constitution; (i) the Contracts Clause of Article I, Section 22 of the Alabama Constitution; and (j) the Due Process Clause of Article I, Section 6 and/or 13 of the Alabama Constitution, on the following separate and several grounds:

1. The procedures fail to provide specific standards for determining whether an award of punitive damages is justified.
2. The procedures fail to provide specific standards for determining the amount of the award of punitive damages.
3. The procedures permit the imposition of an excessive fine in contravention of constitutional prohibitions.
4. The procedures permit the imposition of a fine that is criminal in nature without requiring a burden of proof commensurate with that in a criminal case.
5. The procedures permit multiple awards of punitive damages for the same alleged act.
6. The procedures fail to provide a clear and consistent appellate standard of review of an award of punitive damages.
7. The procedures permit the admission of evidence relative to punitive damages in the same proceedings during which liability and compensatory damages are determined.
8. The procedures may result in the award of joint and several judgments against multiple defendants for different acts of wrongdoing.
9. The procedures fail to provide means for assessment of apportionment of punitive damages separately and severally against alleged joint tortfeasors.
